Name: YONG YAN
(Type or Print)

1. I am employed or desire to be employed by Hewlett-Packard Company (HP). I understand, however, that this Agreement is not a promise or a contract for employment by HP.
2. This Agreement concerns trade secrets, confidential business and technical information, and know-how not generally known to the public, (hereinafter "Confidential Information"), which is acquired or produced by me in connection with my employment by HP. Confidential Information may include, without limitation, information on HP organizations, staffing, finance, information of employee performance, compensation of others, research and development, manufacturing and marketing, as well as information which HP receives from others under an obligation of confidentiality. I agree:
 - a. to use such information only in the performance of HP duties;
 - b. to hold such information in confidence and trust; and
 - c. to use all reasonable precautions to assure that such information is not disclosed to unauthorized persons or used in an unauthorized manner, both during and after my employment with HP.
3. This Agreement also concerns inventions and discoveries (whether or not patentable), designs, works of authorship, mask works, improvements, data, processes, computer programs and software (hereinafter called "Proprietary Developments") that are conceived or made by me alone or with others while I am employed by HP and that relate to the research and development or the business of HP, or that result from work performed by me for HP. Such Proprietary Developments are the sole property of HP, and I agree:
 - a. to disclose them promptly to HP;
 - b. to assign them to HP; and
 - c. to execute all documents and cooperate with HP in all necessary activities to obtain patent, copyright, mask works and/or trade secret protection in all countries, at HP's expense.

In compliance with prevailing provisions of relevant state statutes,¹ this Agreement does not apply to an invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility, or trade secret information of the employer was used and which was developed entirely on the employee's own time, unless (a) the invention relates (i) to the business of the employer, or (ii) to the employers actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (b) the invention results from any work performed by the employee for the employer.

4. I agree to honor any valid disclosure or use restrictions on Confidential Information known to me and received from any former employers or any other parties prior to my employment by HP, and I agree not to bring onto the premises of HP any such information in whatever physical form without prior written consent of such former employers or other parties.
5. The product of all work performed by me during and within the scope of my HP employment including, without limitation, any reports, documents, drawings, computer programs, devices and models, will be the property of HP; and HP will have the sole right to use, sell, license, publish or otherwise disseminate or transfer rights in such a work product.
6. I will not remove any HP property from HP premises without HP's permission.
7. I agree not to disrupt, damage or interfere with the operation or business of HP by soliciting or recruiting its employees for myself or others, both during my employment at HP and for a period of two years following termination of my employment with HP.
8. Upon termination of my employment with HP, I will return all HP property to HP unless HP's written permission to keep it is obtained.

At 0928 hours, I, Clay Lyon, Day Shift Security Manager, received a call to go to Lobby 3, 1501 Page Mill Road, as terminated employee Yong Yan was at the lobby again trying to gain access. I was involved when Yong Yan was terminated on 6/10/03. It was necessary to have him arrested for trespassing to get him off campus. He returned 6/12/03 and was arrested again for trespassing. He also returned on 10/31/03 and was escorted off campus by Security.

At 0930 hours today, 12/12/03, I contacted Yong Yan at Lobby 3. I met him outside and then asked him if he had an appointment. He stated that no one would take his calls, so he came to return a printer. I reminded him that he had been instructed to stay off of HP property under the penalty of arrest. He asked for a receipt for the printer, an HP 'Deskjet' 648C. He had left it on the reception counter when he first arrived. Billie Ellison, Barton Administrative Manager, gave him a receipt as I walked him to his car. At 0950 hours he drove away and Security Unit 1, Bob Underwood, follow him until he passed Hanover. Billie Ellison notified the other lobbies to watch for Mr. Yan.

PAPD was called, but I was gone for the day when they called back and this report, and the attached supplement, wasn't relayed in writing by the Barton Swing Shift Security Manager.

RE: Fourth Trespass by Yong Yan, DOB 11/20/63

This an attachment to a Security Incident Report taken on 12/12/03, where there was some miscommunication on the part of the Barton Protective Services Shift Security Manager with PAPD with this chronic trespass subject.

A report was made to Agent Jackson of PAPD on 10/31/03, Yan's last trespass date, before last Friday, under PAPD case #03-304-0151. That report was forwarded by PAPD to the Santa Clara County DA's Office, Palo Alto, for a probation violation on the part of Yong Yan. Yan's sentence on the first two trespassing convictions prior to 10/31/03, included the condition that he, "STAY OFF THE PROPERTY OF HEWLETT PACKARD UNLESS INVITED." I contacted the D.A.'s office in Palo Alto today and they advised that they are filing for the 10/31/03 trespass at HP. They are filing PC 602 Trespassing and PC 166 Criminal Intent.

HP Security & Investigations Manager Bob Hedgpeth, (650) 857-2430, is requesting that this additional probation violation by Yong Yan also be forwarded to the D.A.'s office for review of charges also.

Re: Signature Request on Pertinent HP Documents

Dear Yong,

I have sent numerous requests to you regarding the attached HP Declaration and Assignment, which remained unanswered by you.

Per our previous email communications, you agreed to meet with me here at HP to execute the necessary documents. Because we incur significant fee's, that HP must pay for, when delay's occur in submitting these documents, I'd like to ask you to help minimize these fee's and act upon this immediately.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Turner
